

Colophon

The text font is 12-point Adobe Times Roman. The documents presented are typeset with L^AT_EX, with two columns to maintain the full-page width of important figures while preserving readability of the main text. The citations and references for all documents were prepared using the chem-acs bibliography style for the biblatex package and adhere to the guidelines of the American Chemical Society.